

The Canadian Trade
Commissioner Service

Preliminary Agenda
Renewable Energies Trade Mission to Honduras
October 28th - October 29th

Tuesday, October 28th, 2014

AM

-Briefing (Ambassador, Senior Trade Commissioner, Trade Commissioner)

-Event's inauguration at Central American Bank of Economic Integration (CABEI) premises. CABEI is a leading Central American Financial Institution with the largest portfolio of renewable energies projects in the Central American region

-Key note presentation by AHPPER (Honduran Association of Private Energy Producers (presentation on the Honduran Renewable Energy current status). With over 80 members this organization works directly in the field of hydroelectric power, wind, solar, geothermal, biomass and biogas, as well as related .

-Key note presentation by the Ministry of Natural Resources (SERNA) on the recently approved legislation on the privatization of electric transmission and distribution. SERNA the Honduran Government Ministry responsible for regulation and policy direction in renewable energies.

Coffee Break

-Key note presentation by the Commission for the Promotion of Public-Private-Partnerships (COALIANZA). The Presentation will cover the Public-Private-Partnerships structure and project development (COALIANZA). It will also address their current initiatives regarding electric energy sector

-Presentation on CABEI's different programs and lines of credit on renewable energy projects.

Canadian companies marketing presentations. These are short presentations given by participating Canadian companies on their capabilities, technologies product and services.

Lunch (offered by the Embassy)

PM

-Business to Business meetings program (B2B). The program will be made of at least 6 appointments per Canadian participating company. Meetings will be scheduled according to companies own interests for the Honduran renewable energy market.

Networking Reception (offered by the Embassy)

Wednesday, October 29th, 2014

AM

-Business to Business meetings program (B2B). The program will be made of at least 6 appointments per Canadian participating company. Meetings will be scheduled according to companies own interests for the Honduran renewable energy market.

Lunch

PM

-Continuation Business to Business meetings program (B2B). The program will be made of at least 6 appointments per Canadian participating company. Meetings will be scheduled according to companies own interests for the Honduran renewable energy market.

END OF PROGRAM